"A Ruined Country."

This is the cry of the paid emissaries of treason in Oregon, and they labor through column after column of editorial twaddle and lies, in order to convince their ignorant supporters that the Administration of Abraham Lincoln has ruined the country, drained it of the last dollar and the last man, placed it upon the verge of bankruptcy, exhausted its every resource and slaughtered its every industrial enterprise, until the formal recognition of their master's inherent right to rule at Richmond would not only be an act of mercy to the "starving hordes of the North," but will soon become an imperative necessity, no longer to be avoided by the "Lincoln minions" in and out of Congress. The Arena has labored to show that the North "can't stand it any longer;" that the proportion of men in the field is too large (to be defeated) and that the Federal Government is already on the verge of financial ruin. No mention of the condition of things existing in Dixie is made public, unless it be some colored report of a Federal defeat, and we are thus constrained to publish a few facts from the Southern papers, whence we hope the traitors in this State can derive consolation. As a matter of intense interest to its readers, we ask the Arena to give them place in its columns.

The material left from which to conscript more men for rebel service may be ascertained from the following item in the Richmond Examiner of July 21st. We ask, in all candor, can the Arena still insist that we have not sufficient men in the North to prosecute the war to a successful issue? The Examiner says:

> THE [illegible] CONSCRIPTION.—On Saturday last a conscript who had been undergoing an examination before the Medical Board, upon reaching the street fell in a fainting fit with bleeding at the lungs, and was carried to a place where medical assistance could be rendered him. He had been pronounced by the highly enlightened Board a healthy conscript while not twenty degrees removed from the grave. The hemorrhage was brought on by the excitement and treatment he received while undergoing an examination before the Board, which Board, of course, did nothing but its duty.

A word in regard to the financial condition of the [illegible]. In the North, the paper currency of the Federal Government is worth to-day forty-five cents on the dollar in gold. In the South, the paper currency of the Rebel Government is worth less than three cents on the dollar in gold.

The Examiner prints a lengthy address from the army near Petersburg, complaining of the exorbitant prices charged for everything. It is directed to Messrs. Harrison, Hubbard and Gibboney, Commissioners to assess Government prices for the State of Virginia. We extract a portion:

> But where is your market price? Shall a few planters who rule the supplies for Richmond, combine to fix market values that shall fill their coffers and starve the country?
> This [illegible] and needless scale of prices must be a great encouragement to the enemy. He will say, as indeed will everybody, either there is an insufficiency of food in the country, or the people have no confidence in their money; either the starving point is at hand, or their currency is worthless. Nothing short of imminent starvation or utter failure of Government credit can warrant such prices.
> Congress, at the late session, became satisfied that army officers were literally starving, and therefore provided for them one ration furnished, another to be purchased. This purchased ration, under your scale, costs more than the entire pay of hundreds, nay thousands of officers. Do you say let them do without? Then they must virtually neglect their duties or vacate their posts. The pay of these officers being thus consumed under your schedule for the scantiest fare, bare enough to keep soul and body together, what are they to do for clothing? Some of them have dependent families. How are they to live?
> Never was people protected by a nobler army; but if Virginians, instead of contributing amply to support that army, thus practice upon it and leave it to suffer and starve, they may rest assured the army will go where it can subsist, and leave them to the fate they will richly deserve.
> Depend upon it, gentlemen, there are truths here you may well ponder. And if you do not ere long reduce your schedule to a reasonable scale, fearful will be your responsibility for the consequences.

The complaints thus made by heads of families in the Confederate service, seem to have had their effect upon the rebel Government, for the Richmond Sentinel has the following:

> PRICES TO BE [illegible].—The attention of the Confederate Government having been directed to the exorbitantly high prices of provisions, and the consequences arising out of the absence of an established schedule, have authorized the appointment of Commissioners of Appraisement, who, having consulted with the most prominent farmers and business men near Richmond, have fixed upon the annexed tariff and prohibited private parties from raising articles of consumption to extremely high rates.
> A hope is expressed that the condition of the needy and distressed will be ameliorated by it, and that the rates will be accepted as just and fair by the producers. The currency has greatly depreciated below the specie standard, and there is a small supply of grain, accompanied with a very great demand for consumption.
> The following standard is, then, the legal prices allowed by law as the maximum rate to be paid by Government for all articles impressed in the usual places of sale, and when appraised on farms, or elsewhere, the same prices are to be paid:
> Wheat, prime white or red, ₩ bush. of 60 lb, $80; flour, good, fine, ₩ bbl. of 196 lb, $182; flour, superfine, ₩ bbl of 196 lb, $[illegible]; flour, extra superfine, ₩ bbl. of 196 lb, $159; flour, family, ₩ bbl. of 196 lb, $168; corn, prime, white or yellow, ₩ bush. of 56 lb, $24; unshelled corn, prime, white or yellow, ₩ bush. of 56 lb, $23 70; corn meal, good, ₩ bush. of 50 lb, $2[illegible]; rye, prime, ₩ bush. of 56 lb, $19.20; cleaned oats, prime, ₩ bush. of 32 lb, $15; wheat bran, good, ₩ bush. of 17 lb, $8; shorts, good, ₩ bush. of 22 lb, $4.20; brown stuff, good, ₩ bush. of 57 lb, $5 40; shipstuff, good, ₩ bush. of 57 lb, $5 40; bacon, good, hog round, ₩ lb, $[illegible]; pork, salt, good, ₩ lb, net weight, $8 29; lard, good, ₩ lb, $5; peas, good, ₩ bush. $80; beans, good, ₩ bush. $80; potatoes, good Irish, ₩ bush. $70; potatoes, good, sweet, ₩ bush. $12; onions, good, ₩ bush., $80; dried peaches, good, peeled, ₩ bush. $12; dried peaches, good, unpealed, ₩ bush. $8; dried apples, good, peeled, ₩ bush., $8.

OMINOUS.—The Chicago Convention met on Benedict Arnold's birthday, and the Democrats are called upon to endorse its platform and ratify its nominations upon the 17th—the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution. If the Democrats were in the ascendant, the years of Constitutional liberty and self-government would thus be evenly numbered. But constitutional liberty never originated with any such mongrel crowd; and in November the huge wave of loyalty will drown out the last drop of [illegible] treason from the land. Andy Johnson is now making the shroud in which to bury the carcass.

IT is a fact worthy of remark that nine-tenths of the immigrants now coming in are Democrats. Upwards of a hundred of this "peculiar kind" have settled in this county.—Walla Walla Statesman.

Legislative Correspondence.

SALEM, September 12th, 1864.

Of course the town [illegible] many strangers assembled, not only to attend the session of the Legislature in the various capacities of member, officer, [illegible] and [illegible] "looker on," but there are also [illegible] members here in attendance on the [illegible] session.

It was a most refreshing sight for an [illegible] individual like your correspondent, who [illegible] office not being even an [illegible] to see this morning [illegible] intense amount of [illegible] course it was not possible to keep [illegible] the contagion, so we went in for a [illegible] considerable warranting as to [illegible] for four bit's worth of lager on his account [illegible] course he was unanimously elected. [illegible] Well! about 10 o'clock matters culminated, the two Houses were called to order by their respective clerks of the session of 1862, and completed their organization very harmoniously.

In the Senate there was some competition for the office of President, the rival candidates being Messrs. Hovey, of Benton, and Mitchell, of Multnomah, resulting in the choice of Mitchell, though it is almost a pity that it did, as Mr. Hovey would have presided admirably, and Mr. Mitchell really should not have been spared from the floor, where he is most efficient.

There was no contest for the Speakership in the House, where Mr. Moores, of Marion, was unanimously elected. The minor offices were filled without difficulty, as there were an abundance of candidates for each one. After the organization was complete in the Senate, the Rev. [illegible] D. Henderson being present by invitation opened the session with prayer, and in the House a resolution was offered inviting the clergy of the state capital to daily open its sessions with prayer. The complexion of matters is somewhat changed from last year by the return of a few Democrats, and the unaccountable change of my friend Curl of Linn, who holds over in the Senate, with [illegible] change from his unconditional Unionism of the last session.

Mr. Fay, of Jackson, is much more fortunate than when he was Mr. Fay, of [illegible] two years ago, best told why in his own words, as he declares himself not to be quite independent of the "Blacks," as he has some one [illegible] his [illegible] tion" for him. And as he has [illegible] to render him that valuable assistance, he will doubtless often be heard from. And he will mix things up terribly, if he keeps on with as brilliant motions as he commenced with to-day, before the House was half organized, by which I understand the House came near cutting itself adrift from its staid coadjutor—the Senate, and starting adrift on its parliamentary (or rather un-parliamentary) course alone; but Mr. Fay is not behind the world for all that, and was only a trifle carried away by the [illegible] of his independence, as above stated, and was "trying it on" a little unguardedly; that was all.

The Senatorial combat is drawing near, and the contest will probably take place this week. It is a war of the Titans, and the principal candidates are putting forth herculean efforts, neither of them have a majority on their side; that is certain, and the thing is open for a vast amount of electioneering, and is being very well attended to so far as appearances indicate. This is only, however, the introductory Legislative bow of your correspondent.

REMARKS OF HON. J. H. MITCHELL, PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.—Through the politeness of a friend at Salem, we are able to publish the remarks made by Hon. J. H. Mitchell, of this city, on being conducted to his seat as President of the Senate. He spoke as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate: You must excuse a speech on this occasion. I have no set speech to make. I did not consider my chances of an election to this honorable position sufficiently certain to induce me to prepare a speech of thanks in advance as is sometimes the case upon like occasions. I fully appreciate, however, and must cordially acknowledge the high honor conferred in choosing me, the youngest member of your Honorable body, as your presiding officer. I return you each and all my earnest, heartfelt thanks. I am only sorry that I am not more adequately qualified for the duties of the place to which your generosity has called me. I shall endeavor, however, to perform the duties of my office honestly, impartially, and with true fidelity, believing, as I do, that it will be not only the aim and object, but the pleasure of each and every Senator to aid and assist, rather than embarrass me in the performance of these duties; believing, as I do, that any errors upon my part—and I know there will be some—will be attributed to the head and not to the heart. Trusting then that all our deliberations may be characterized by a spirit of harmony and mutual co-operation, and that they may result in the full and faithful performance of our whole duty to ourselves, our constituents, our State and our Nation, I again thank you kindly for this public manifestation of your generous regard.

We will now proceed to perfect our organization.

REBEL DEMONSTRATIONS.—From statements made in the Mariposa Gazette and Stockton Independent and the late demonstration at Georgetown, with other significant movements elsewhere, it would seem that the secessionists in this State are getting tired of a peaceful civil rule, and are desirous of participating in some of those scenes which the guerrillas of Missouri and other Western States have inaugurated. Such gatherings as are spoken of by our exchanges should receive early attention on the part of our Federal authorities, so that these incipient treasonable demonstrations be suppressed at once. Such movements as we now chronicle have been encouraged by Secession speakers and journals for some time, and it is not strange that such teachings as have emanated from them should produce their legitimate fruit. The Mariposa Gazette of Sept. 3d says:

About ten o'clock last Wednesday night the people of this place were surprised to see large numbers of men hurrying through the streets, concentrating at the upper end of town, and armed variously—with double barreled guns, yagers, rifles, pistols, and a little "old rye." Something was up, and the guerrilla style of the crowd caused old women to put extra fastenings on their hen-houses, and the owners of property generally to sleep with one eye open. This armed collection remained in and around the Press office until an early hour Thursday morning, when they "retired in good order." It seems that an anonymous letter from Visalia, received Wednesday, gave notice that a band of soldiers were on their way here to destroy the Free Press office [they have lately arrived in Sacramento,] and the cry had gone out that help was needed, when Dixieites came hurrying along, prepared and anxious to give "Old Abe's hirelings," the "Abolition soldiers," a good thrashing, and evinced no little ambition to demonstrate their bravery by shooting a few of them.

On Thursday night the guerrillas came in squads of half a dozen, with their rifles and shot-guns. It is evident that they are members of a thorough organization, and that something beyond resisting a raid from soldiers is contemplated. This having the town taken by armed men every night is not exactly desirable, and may, if continued, be the cause of Gen. McDowell stationing, for a time, a few companies of soldiers here.

The Stockton Independent of yesterday has the following:

It was rumored about town yesterday that there is a collection of nearly one hundred armed guerrillas on the San Joaquin, some twelve miles south of this place. When accosted as to their business their reply was, "We are on a hunt." To one party they said they had no particular business or purpose in view, and might not do anything if there was no draft. They also say they expect some thirty or forty more recruits. We give this as a rumor only, but shall endeavor to find out the whole truth by to-morrow.

It is supposed by some that these demonstrations have their origin in a determination to resist anything in the shape of a draft in this State. General McDowell should have an eye upon these "specimens, and be prepared to lay military hands upon them.—Sac. Union.

IDAHO UNION NOMINEES.—Judge S. C. Parks received the nomination for Delegate to Congress for Idaho from the Republican convention, which met at Packer John's on the 27th ult. B. F. Lamkin, of Nez Perces county, was nominated for Territorial Auditor, Charles H. Vagen, of Boise county, for Territorial Treasurer, and D. M. Walters, of Boise county, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

From Montana Territory.

BITTER ROOT VALLEY, M. T.,
August 13th, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The Flat Head Indians, as a tribe, are peaceable; but horse stealing and whiskey purchasing by some individuals is more abominably rife than ever. The mining communities at Virginia City, Hell Gate, Deer Lodge, and on the line of the Military Road to Benton are continually annoyed by their stock being stolen by Pen d'Oreille and Flat Head Indians, and these mining communities threaten to organize and "clean out" both of these tribes. That people have a penchant for vigilance committees and they may be incensed to fulfill their threats.

I have recently returned from Virginia City, 240 miles distant. I saw there Gov. Edgerton. He was the only one of the appointees for Montana Territory who had arrived. He had not received his commission, but expected it every mail. The delegateship is making a stir. Sanders, a young lawyer, is prominent among Union men as a candidate for nomination. Tufts, late speaker of the Idaho Legislature, is also desirous of the candidacy, claiming to be Union, but has the confidence of the Copperheads.

The gold diggings at present in the vicinity of Virginia City, are comprised in the Bannock City and Virginia City camps. The former contains about 500 persons, making average wages of $5; and it is computed that in the creek or Virginia district, there are 15,000. The diggings on this latter creek are 18 miles long and certainly very rich. All the claims are taken, and all therefore known to be paying ones are employing all the hands that can be had at from $4 to $7 per day. There are other localities worked for gold: Prickly Pear, Silver Creek, Gold and Boulder Creeks, but, in my opinion, they don't amount to much. A great many lodes of gold and silver quartz have been found. I saw some of the best specimens. The gold can be seen by using a microscope. Parties are here who say they represent New York capital, and who will bring mills if the quartz is found to pay.

On account of the low stage of water in the Missouri this summer, steamers could only reach Milk river. Freights were forwarded from thence to Fort Benton in small boats.

When I was in Virginia City the immigration was in full blast—two or three hundred arrived daily, and the universal conversation among them was that they were badly sold in coming. They will be compelled to settle down here, however, and possibly they may improve their condition. There are a good many Copperheads among them, who ought to have been sent South.

HOW THE REBELS LOVE THE IRISH.—While Irishmen in the army are fighting the battles of secession, just observe how their Southern friends are treating the [illegible] "in Dixie." The recent Richmond papers show, for the expulsion of over a thousand Irish women from that city. They want to have these unfortunate women dressed for [illegible] out of Secessia. They are charged with doing no labor and subsisting upon charity. Their rude friends have perished in the rebel ranks and now these poor women are to be thrust out upon the world to shift for themselves.

BOILS. WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of [illegible] We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that poison of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the blood? Do you ask what will do it? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing [illegible] in every form, and there is not a [illegible] in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. THE AMERICAN CONFLICT.—A History of the Great Rebellion in the United States of America, 1860-'64, its causes, incidents, and results; by Horace Greely.—We are in receipt of Volume I of the above work at the hands of the Canvassing Agent in this city and county, Mr. Shaw. It is truly a great and [illegible] standard work, and is the careful production of one [illegible] the American people know to be well versed [illegible] in the political and social history of the government. [illegible] in its [illegible], having grown grey in his studies [illegible], he is well adapted to handle the present subject, which he appears to have done in a popular [illegible]. The drift and progress of American opinion respecting human slavery, from 1776 to the close of the war for the Union is treated in accordance with the established views of the author. This volume before us has 650 pages, and contains splendid illustrations, portraits, on steel, of Generals, statesmen, and other eminent men, views of places of historic [illegible], maps, diagrams, etc., well put together in [illegible] styles of binding. Volume II is expected to be a counterpart of the one just issued, and will be completed with the close of the war. No library should be finished without a copy of this important work, and it should be fostered as a truthful history of the American Conflict.

A FIRE-PROOF BUILDING.—The fire-proof building now erecting on the site of the recently burned tar [illegible] works, is in every way calculated for the safe manufacture of the combustible articles made by the firm of T. A. Wood & Co. It is composed wholly of iron and brick, surrounding the furnaces, with ample room for carrying on the boiling, retorting, etc. The roof is formed in the shape of a half circle, resting on bars of iron, to which it is firmly welded. The doors are encased with iron, and hung with heavy shutters, and so arranged when closed as to make the building perfectly air tight and fire proof. The manufacture of pitch and turpentine will shortly be commenced again, and the proprietors feel that they will be capable of keeping up with the demand for the article, which is increasing every day.

SAW LOGS FROM ST. HELENS.—The little steamer Eagle has demonstrated the fact that logs can be procured on the Columbia for our Portland saw mills about as advantageously as elsewhere. A raft containing 125,000 feet has been towed from St. Helens for the firm of Harbaugh & Stalzel, at the expense of $125, or $1 P M feet. It may seem like an odd picture, to be engaged in such an enterprise, towing raw material up stream into a country where it so much abounds, but the logs are delivered at a certain price, and it can certainly make no difference with the mill owners whether they come floating down the channel in the natural course of [illegible], or whether by the force of steam they come the other way. This is the first lot that ever reached the city from that locality, but millions will [illegible] follow.

MULTNOMAH GOLD AND SILVER MINING COMPANY.—The President of the above mining company, resident in this city, has received a statement from the Superintendent, now operating on the lodes of the company in Boise county, Idaho, which gives a very flattering account of the prospects before him for successfully working their claims. A number of our citizens are interested in this incorporation and they will be glad to learn that arrangements have been made with parties from Denver, Colorado Territory, by which a large mill now on the route to Boise will be put up and started in crushing for the company. We will soon have a good report from the Union, Daniel Webster, Mattox, Moore and other ledges of the Multnomah.

Mazeppa.—The re-production of the burlesque of the great play of Mazeppa at Willamette Theatre last night has compelled us to notice it again, in a [illegible] of our reportorial duties. Were we called upon to criticise the play undoubtedly we should say it was played splendidly, and as a burlesque was a rich one. Mazeppa is the play for tonight, and Mrs. Morgan is the fair one selected to be "lashed to the back of the fiery untamed steed." The troupe will leave us on Thursday morning for a trip to the Dalles.

COBBLE STONES AND SAND.—The article of cobble stones and sand have lately become quite an item of commerce, as the numerous large loads discharged at the various landings in this city attest. The paving of our streets give rise to this active trade. It is suggested by some whether or not the paving [illegible] will not "clean Clackamas out" of stones entirely, and force the contractors to prospect on some other stream? We think there need be no apprehensions felt on that score—for a generation at least.

NEW GOLD FIELDS.—By the arrival of the steamer [illegible] from Monticello last evening we have intelligence of the discovery of a new gold field on the tributaries of the river Yakima. We are without any particulars concerning the matter, except that considerable excitement prevailed at Olympia and Monticello in consequence, and parties were leaving for the new El Dorado.

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—This steamship sailed as advertised last evening for San Francisco via Victoria. Her treasure list amounted to but $210,000; Wells, Fargo & Co. shipping $210,000 [illegible] Tilton $2,000, although from the well known character of miners and others, it is positive that was but a small portion of the real amount she carries. The passengers numbered ninety-nine persons, and freight thirty tons.

REV. MR. BOYAKIN'S LECTURE.—The lecture of Rev. W. F. Boyakin was repeated—or rather continued—at the Congregational Church last evening, to a full audience. His subjects elicited much attention, and at the close of his discourse the congregation paid him a compliment, tendering the sum of about $30. A collection the previous evening, taken in aid of one of the Commissions of mercy to the suffering wants of the soldier, netted about $40.

NAVIGATION IMPROVEMENT.—The committee to whom was entrusted the work of removing the obstructions to navigation in the Willamette river, are making every effort for an immediate prosecution of the desired improvement. Those of our citizens who wish to contribute to the fund now being raised for the purpose, will find the subscription list in the hands of Mayor Failing.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—A block of land situated in the town of East Portland, fronting 200 feet on Water street, will be offered for sale at Auction this morning by Mr. A. B. Richardson. The property is enclosed with a good substantial fence, and there is a choice variety of fruit trees on the premises.

TREASURE.—Mr. West, Messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, arrived by the steamer [illegible] last evening, bringing two hundred pounds [illegible] gold dust from the mining regions. A large number of passengers arrived by the same boat, bringing large amounts.

[illegible] HOUSE.—The work on this new structure has so far progressed as to show its dimensions and shape to a good extent. When completed it will compare very favorably as a building for the purposes designated with any on the coast.

POLITICAL PREACHING.—The Zanesville [illegible] [illegible] We hear that the copperheads of Knox county are becoming very religious. For two Sabbaths they have had preaching in the Court House. The [illegible] is one [illegible] whose belonging to Mr. Olds' church and from Illinois where he had been thrown out of the church for disloyalty. It is said there has been a pretty good turn out of the peace democrats of the county. The movement is supposed to be to prepare the minds of the faithful to demand an armistice and the stoppage of the present war. Some of the faithful, it is supposed, thought they were about to enter heaven when they approached the doors of the Court-House where the services were held, they knocked for admittance. Many of them, perhaps, had never been at church before. It is [illegible] a sign of promise that copperheads are practically encouraging the preaching of politics.

Harmony Lodge No. 12, F. & A. M.—Meets on 2d and 4th Mondays of each month, at 7 o'clock P.M. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

By order of W. M.

Letter from Rev. Dr. Bellows.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. [illegible], 1864.

To the Oregon Branch of the U. S. Sanitary Commission:

GENTLEMEN: I congratulate myself in opening my [illegible] correspondence with you, so long and pleasantly carried on with your indefatigable [illegible] [illegible] in the cause of the Sanitary [illegible]. And I rejoice that my first duty is to acknowledge the generous contribution of $2,120, currency, with which several liberal citizens of Portland are pleased to express their welcome to the President of the Sanitary Commission to-day he had been an hour in the city. Such a gift to the sick and wounded soldiers is indeed the most acceptable hospitality to one who has sought for more than three years to be their friend.

I have also to acknowledge, as the result of my Address before the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society, the contribution of $218 60 coin, and $250 in currency, for which the generous women who have so successfully managed that admirable society will accept my hearty thanks.

It may interest you to know what the precise product of a single week in Oregon was. I proposed no collection and expected none, my sole object being to thank the good people of Oregon and Washington Territory for past favors, to tell them how their money had been spent, and to arrange for future systematic contributions, which I trust your Oregon Branch of the U.S. Sanitary Commission will render effectual. The spontaneous liberality of the people is therefore the more instructive and encouraging.

RECEIPTS, FROM AUG. 19 TO AUG. 27.

[illegible]

Large contributions were taken up in Albany and Salem, the proceeds of which have not yet reached me. Considering that the eloquent Agent of the Christian Commission had advocated his excellent cause everywhere before, within the previous ten days, and that the active Agent of the Freedman's Aid Society had been canvassing the State for two months, this result shows plainly how warmly the hearts of your people are enlisted in the original National enterprise for the relief of our soldiers—the example and cause of the rest.

Trusting that your Branch will swiftly and thoroughly organize the complete State, and recommending you to employ a competent Agent to visit every town and establish a Soldiers' Aid Society in it, I shall await with confidence the results of your systematic and persistent exertions.

I have seen enough of Oregon and of Portland to have a deep interest in your future, and hope to be of some service to the State on my return East ward. Cordially and respectfully,

Yours,

HENRY W. BELLOWS.

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague, in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Imitations are abroad. Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that, which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Oregonians should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. Sold by Druggists and dealers generally.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver, and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, refreshes, and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its [illegible] and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the gastric juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender [illegible] aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative it is not in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all perplexing disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

The Dark Side of the Revolution.

Those who are accustomed to take discouraging views of our present contest, because they imagine we are so much more corrupt and wicked than the patriots of the old revolutionary days, would do well to read the fourteenth chapter of Lorenzo Sabine's "Historical Essay," in the new edition of the "American Loyalist." It reads very much like a series of pungent observations on contemporary events, although none will dispute the accuracy and sound judgment of Mr. Sabine as a historian. We make a few pertinent extracts. Of the prominent men of the revolutionary era, Mr. Sabine says, "they were great and good, little and bad, mingled, just as elsewhere in the annals of our race," and he adds:

"Still again, avarice and rapacity were seemingly as common then as now. Indeed, the stock jobbing, the extortion, the forestalling, the low arts and devices to amass wealth, that were practiced during the struggle, are almost incredible. Washington mourned the want of virtue as early as 1775, and averred that he 'trembled at the prospect.' Soldiers were stripped of their miserable pittance, that contractors for the army might become rich in a single campaign. Many of the sellers of merchandise monopolized articles of the first necessity, and would not part with them to their suffering countrymen, and to the wives and children of those who were absent in the field, unless at enormous profits. The traffic carried on with the loyal troops was immense. Men of all descriptions finally engaged in it, and those who at the beginning of the war would have shuddered at the idea of any connection with the enemy, pursued it with avidity."

Washington himself, in one of his private letters, bears full testimony to the correctness of this description:

"From what I have seen, heard, and in part know," said he, "I should in one word say, that idleness, dissipation, and extravagance, seem to have laid fast hold of most; that speculation, peculation and insatiable thirst for riches, seem to have got the better of every other consideration with almost every order of men; and that party disputes and personal quarrels are the business of the day."

The difficulty of raising troops was almost insurmountable in several of the States. Bounty-jumpers and deserters were as common then as now, in proportion to the size of the armies. Washington declared in a letter to his brother that the States were sending him officers "not fit to be shoeblacks." With regard to the troubles among officers, Mr. Sabine says:

"Eighteen of the Generals retired during the struggle; one for drunkenness; one to avoid disgrace for receiving double pay; some for declining health; others from the weight of advanced years; others to accept civil employments; but several from private resentments, real or imaginary wrongs inflicted by Congress or associates in the service. The example of the latter class was pernicious; since, when heads of divisions or brigades quit their commands for reasons chiefly or entirely personal, it was to be expected that regiments, battalions, and companies would be left in like manner, without officers. Abundant testimony can be adduced to show that individuals of all ranks entered the army from interested motives, and abandoned it from similar reasons. John Adams wrote, in 1777: 'I am wearied to death with the wranglings between military officers, high and low. They quarrel like cats and dogs. They worry one another like mastiffs, scrambling for rank and pay like apes for nuts.' Washington, more guarded to Congress, uses language almost as pointed to his friends."

Such were some of the clouds of discouragements through which, with infinitely less advantages than we enjoy, our fathers fought their way to victory. Why, then, should we falter before the same obstacles?

A Bonaparte the Probable Successor of the Pope.—It is said that Lucien Bonaparte stands a good chance for the succession to the Papal chair. It is said that the French party in Italy are straining every nerve in order to place the cousin of the Emperor of France at the head of the Roman Catholic Church. Such a measure, of course, receives all the aid that the wily Louis Napoleon can give to secure its success.

"Jenny," said a landlady to her help the other morning, "Jenny, was there any fire in the kitchen last night while you were sitting up?" "Yes marm," said Jenny, "there was a spark there when I went down I soon fanned it into a flame." The landlady looked suspicious at Jenny, but the innocent girl went on scrubbing, and humming "Katy Darling."

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M.D., Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly, July [illegible], 1856, page 76).

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient acquires flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:
HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.
DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk, or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. "CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disordered or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
